167 X. MATTERS FROM THE VILLAGE ATTORNEY

168
169 Mr. DeFillippo stated the meeting between himself, and the Village was very informative and will have a
170 drafted ordinance for the water increase. He also stated he had a follow up with ONRT and the funding they 171 have for the Village for the sewer and the water well. The funding will be provided to help the Village in 172 the best manner possible. Chevron has also asked the Village to put together a list of projects that will need
173 funding so they may look it over.

174
175 XI. MATTERS FROM THE MAYOR AND COUNCILMEMBERS

176
177 Councilwoman Gallegos brought up Michael Nezi and the status of his business license.
178 Councilman Gonzalez has been receiving complaints about the speed and how constituents are not 179 following the speed limit. We will follow up with Judge Rael.
180 The Village Chief is responding to some calls but is currently having some issues with the radio and dispatch
181 calls. Everything is coming together at the Police Department.
